

RESEARCH ASSISTANT INTERNSHIP CALL

Acquire practical and scientific experiences as a member of the Institute of International Relations Prague. As a research assistant, you will have the opportunity to gain invaluable knowledge and experiences in the field of international relations and research.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assist your personal mentor with ongoing projects
- Support other researchers if needed
- Engage in search activity and proof reading
- Prepare reports for public events

The Research Assistant internship lasts for the duration of 4 months, with the possibility of extension for another two months.. The scope of work is 15 hours/week, which can be done partially from home after an agreement with your mentor.

To learn more about the position, visit the IIR's website.

To apply for the position, fill out the internship application form.

Apply by September 30th 2026 for the February-May period.

